Andy: Mommy, where's the new story we bought yesterday?

Mommy: It's on the bookshelf, dear.

Andy: Can we please read it?

Mommy: Wow! It's a good idea, Andy!

Mommy: Let's take a break and bake a cake!

Andy: Mommy I am so excited about baking a cake.

Mommy: We will bake it together to make it better! Now let's prepare the ingredients and put them aside.

Andy: Mommy, can we make a chocolate cake?

Mommy: Yes, we can, but we must be careful when we read so we won't mess up.

Mommy: To bake a cake, we will use two cups of flour.

- A Half cup of cocoa powder
- one and a half teaspoons baking powder
- one and half teaspoon bicarbonate of soda
- Two eggs
- One cup of milk
- A Half-cup vegetable oil
- Two teaspoons of vanilla extract.
- Two cups of boiling water

Mommy: For icing, we will use chocolate cream and vermicelli on the top to give it a sparkle, and of course, a cake pan.

Let's start by preheating the oven to 180 degrees.

Mommy: Now, let's put all the ingredients in a bowl, except the boiling water.

Ooopps! Ooops! Oops! Flour on my hood

Mommy: Let's mix Andy!

Mix mix mix whisk whisk whisk

We will repeat this till the mixture is well mixed.

Mix mix mix whisk whisk whisk

Mix mix mix whisk whisk whisk

Mix mix mix

whisk whisk whisk

Mix mix mix

Mommy: May I take a turn because now I will put the boiling water?

Andy: Of course, Mommy!

Mommy: Give mommy a turn to avoid being burned!

Mommy: And now to the oven!

30 minutes to be ready!

After 10 minutes...

Andy: Mommy is it time to take the cake out of the oven??

Mommy: No mommy. There are 20 more minutes remaining

Andy:
